SUBJECT : Complaints by Military Details

REFERENCE : Memorandum from I&A Staff to IG dated 23 October 1953

STATINTL

STATINTL

1. The report of dissatisfaction felt by military personnel assigned to the [REDACTED] contained in referenced memorandum is expressed in such general terms as to preclude analysis or evaluation. However, this Office has had other evidence of morale problems among military people serving with the [REDACTED] Exit interview reports of returning personnel have tended to create a picture of fairly widespread unhappiness among Service personnel in the [REDACTED]

STATINTL

STATINTL

2. I have asked the Personnel Office to prepare a memorandum addressed to [REDACTED] for the Director's approval. In this memorandum, I believe we should point out the various indications that have come to our attention which show that morale among military personnel may be weak. A copy of this memorandum will be forwarded to your Office.
